

PLAYWRITE: USE YOUR WORDS

PlayWrite will free your mind through wordplay and your heart through storytelling.

The session's focus can vary from freestyle cyphers to more writing driven exercises. Whatever is needed to enable participants to open their channels of expression to freely share their stories with others.

bravochild is a poet, master improviser, performance artist, actor and game designer who has travelled Australia and the world bringing change through play and social experiments.

Learn how to express yourself through voice. Bring ideas to life through meaning, flow and wordplay. Whether you're a performance poet, actor, lyricist, speaker or just someone who wants to flex their communication muscle, this workshop will give you a workout!

The workshops cover the following areas:

- Overcoming writer's block.
- The freestyle mindstate.
- Your poetic license.
- Character development and world creation.
- Connecting voice, breath and movement.
- Writing for performance.
